Risk Benefit Assessment for
The Mini Village

Benefits:	Brain development Physical development Fresh air Friendship and relationships Being creative Time to explore
Risks:	Could fall off the huts. Could get a splinter in hands. Could bump into the hut or someone else.
Risk Management:	Children to go in the huts, do not climb on the huts. Be aware of the huts and other people around you. Avoid any rough wood, tell an adult if a bit of wood is broken.
Good play:	Sit in the huts with your friends. Pretend they are your homes. Pretend they are you secret meeting rooms. Relax and take a break inside them.
Conclusion:	You can all play in the mini village! The benefits outweigh the risks.
